John Askin the immigrant had a son named John Askin by Rebecca WRIGHT. He married Rebecca CLOCKER, daughter of Daniel CLOCKER and Mary LAWNE COURTNEY CLOCKER after Rebecca WRIGHT died. He had another son named George ASKIN. I think George was the son of John ASKIN and Rebecca CLOCKER, but I've corresponded with other genealogists that felt he was the son of Rebecca WRIGHT and John ASKIN. John ASKIN, the son of John ASKIN and Rebecca WRIGHT died c Mar of 1697. His will states that he leaves "To brother GEORGE and heirs plantation. In event of death of said brother without issue plantation to pass to Bryan son of Bryan DALY and heirs..etc." note: Rebecca CLOCKER ASKIN married Bryan Daly after John ASKIN sr., died. She married a Semmes "Simms"? after Bryan DALY died.

George ASKINS died c 1749, married an Elizabeth ?. They had 5 girls and two boys. The oldest boy Vincent, died without heirs c 1745 and left his property to his younger brother John Askins who had removed to Fairfax County, VA. John Askins died c 1796 in Fairfax VA. His will names the following children:

Courtney	who migrated to Breckinridge County, KY c 1810 my line
William
George
John
Thomas	born c 1774 VA, died c 1851 Bracken County, KY
Rebecca	married William Stone
Vincent	married Elizabeth Nolan

There was a researcher named Margaret Ford that did extensive work on this family a number of years ago. I was lucky enough to connect with her and she was kind enough to share with me.

John Askins of Charles County Maryland immigrated from England in 1658 and died in 1680. He had a wife named Rebecca and a son named John. William appears to have descended from him, but I have no details between 1680 and 1747 .

William, Sr's father -John Askins, Jr., a farmer (125 acres in 1705) of Hemico Co. V A. There is a strong likelihood, though I haven't documented it yet, that he was the son of the John Askins who immigrated from England to Charles Co. MD in 1658, (the first Askins in America?)

William was born on 11 October 1747 and died at Richmond, V A on 3 December 1789. [There are good records of that because he served in the 12th Virginia Continental Line during the Revolution]. William Jr. was born 18 August 1775 and moved from Richmond to the Marion District of SC (Florence County)after his father's death. He was the only person of the surname Askins living in SC at the time of the 1800 census. He had 2 sons a daughter ,Robert T ., William T. and Eliza Jane. There are lots of records of the Clan in SC.
